Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: UK air pollution levels are expected to be largely Low on Monday, with areas of Moderate likely in England and Wales due to long sunny spells and light easterly winds.

Tomorrow: Another day of sunny spells and light easterly winds on Tuesday will bring Low air pollution levels to much of the UK, though parts of eastern and western England may become Moderate.

Outlook: Becoming unsettled for a time later in the week, with strong winds and spells of heavy rain arriving from the southeast. Air pollution levels will remain Low for many, with pockets of Moderate possible.
